

NEXT WEEK AT THE THEATRES.

Smith and Cook Re-engaged for the Terrace Garden.

Frank Blair to Appear in "The Passing Show" at the Casino.

Smith and Cook have given such satisfaction at the Terrace Garden that they have been re-engaged for the coming week at that house. Other features of the interesting programme will be Frank B. Sheridan, "the original McGinty"; Ella Caldwell, the popular balladist; Harry Welton and his famous cat circus; Ruth Ward and her four-legged dance; Martini, Durcor and Loretta, the Rixford brothers, acrobats, and Harris and Walters, the refined German comedians. Naham Franko and his admirable orchestra give concerts every night in the garden.

Frank Blair, a very clever comedian will appear in "The Passing Show" at the Casino Monday night, taking the place of John E. Henshaw, who goes upon his vacation. Mr. Blair will play the part of Laf Quicksop in broad farcical way. The roof-garden artists will be the three "Milkmaids," Christine, Cleopatra, Katherine B. Howe, Harrison and Muir, McBride and Goodrich, the Electric Quartet of vocalists, Misses Channing, Eddie Paddack, Mayme, Frank Cummins, Blanche Eglee, grist, Nina Bertolini, the French dancer, and Hodge and Larchmere.

The "De Forester" grand character dances will be given at Koster & Bial's Concert Hall next week, and so will Anna Caldwell, the comedienne. The balance of the programme will be given by the three "Milkmaids," Raffaele, Hodge and Larchmere, and some Sunday nights for the first time in two years "Playmoms," the song in which she made her first success in this country. Adelina Patti, the famous French soprano, has been engaged and will give a concert at the Metropolitan Opera-House, and will be, it is thought, the most important affair. The big spectacle is doing very well, and during the past torrid week Manhattan Beach has been crowded with people. Hesse's Band concerts must not be forgotten. They are delightful entertainments.

"Lalla Rookh" is still to be seen, heard and enjoyed at the Madison Square roof garden, but there is no talk at all of withdrawing it. "The Chimes of Normandy" was put in rehearsal some time ago, because it was not thought that "The Mikado" would be long on the stage. "The Mikado," however, will not think just yet, for Ko Ko, and Yum Yum, and Pitti Sing, and Pooch Ball, appear to give general satisfaction.

It is declared that the general use of fans on the stage appears to have a cooling effect on the audience, as well as upon the performers.

Franzoli, who has charge of the "Lalla Rookh" ballet in Paine's Amphitheatre at Manhattan Beach, has been highly engaged for some time, and it is now said that the great spectacle will be seen to-night. The ballet has been rehearsed at the Metropolitan Opera-House, and will be, it is thought, the most important affair. The big spectacle is doing very well, and during the past torrid week Manhattan Beach has been crowded with people. Hesse's Band concerts must not be forgotten. They are delightful entertainments.

"Lalla Rookh's" Great Success. Crowds of delighted auditors fill Paine's Amphitheatre at Manhattan Beach every night during the week, with the exception of Sunday and Monday, to see the Oriental spectacle of which he gets a vivid picture from the White City. He sees the lake excursion steamers, the electric launches sailing over the lagoons, trains leading the pack animals and the blundered fountains. Then he sees the Fire lit up at night. In the Amphitheatre the Russian Imperial Orchestra gives concerts.

The "Lalla Rookh" ballet girls at Manhattan Beach are doing very well indeed. To-morrow night Mr. Barr, the trainer of the Siberian bears, will introduce, for the first time in America, his famous Siberian bears. This bear will box three rounds with his trainer. The milk-white donkey introduced during the past week by Behrman has had a treat with the children, and so has Mermann's dear bear Pete. The daily excursions from Long Island towns during the past week have brought thousands of people to Manhattan Beach. The Zamora family of Mexicans will make their first appearance at Eldorado Monday night. They do an act called "People of Troy," the latest something of a sensation in Europe.

The four Goldsmith sisters will do a French pantomime dance, other acts will be Abner, the Arabian acrobat, and Severus Schaffer, the juggler. The two charming ballerinas, "Cosmopolitan," and Pauline, the latest thing of a sensation in Europe, will be given in all their glory. The elaborate monster living pictures are a great success.

The living pictures will remain at Paster's Theatre for a long time, and there will be a new series Monday week. The Wilbur Opera Company will end its engagement at the Casino on Saturday week. "The Merry War" will be given for the first three nights and "The Mascot" for the rest of the week. The vaudeville will be all new, including Dan Gorden, Dan Genard, Charles Davis, Otto Maurer, Tod Young, the banjoist, and Ed O'Connell. Hereafter, Mr. Proctor will present straight vaudeville and living pictures.

Manager Weyl of the American Roof Garden, announces for the coming week Salomon, Leibowitz, the Spanish dancer, De Bellis, the lightning modeler; some "real" pickaninnies who come directly from the South and the amateur Miss Caldwell, in a plantation sketch; Victoria Winters, the Weston sisters, Dashaway and Moulton, triple horizontal bar performers; the Shakespeares, the hirsute acrobats, John W. Hanson has been re-engaged, and so has the popular Koh-i-Noor.

Hansel, Clegg, and the Melancholy devils remain at the Imperial Music Hall during the coming week. The balance of the programme will consist of Sherman and his troupe, the two boys, the two performers; John R. Hardy, the little high kicker, who first became known at the character singer; Niagaras and Thora, and the two American Maes. The new series of living pictures still continues to please the patrons of this theatre. The attendance during the week was large.
